When Everyone Leads

Ed O’Malley, President and CEO of Kansas Health Foundation, says leadership is not about position or grand speeches. It’s about engaging others to solve seemingly unsolvable challenges that appear in our personal or professional lives. Leadership involves small actions taken in moments of opportunity, which anyone can do. The power to solve our most important challenges comes When Everyone Leads. We can seize the opportunity in these moments and help others do the same. Every attendee will get a copy of Ed’s book, “When Everyone Leads.”

THURSDAY MORNING BREAKOUT SESSIONS

(10:30 AM — 11:30 AM)

MORNING BREAKOUT SESSION 1

Value Based Care Basics

ROOM Brazilian A
SPEAKER Ann Hutchison, MBA

Value-based care is a healthcare delivery model that focuses on improving patient outcomes while optimizing costs. It's a departure from the traditional fee-for-service model where healthcare providers are paid based on the number of services they provide, regardless of the outcomes achieved. In value-based care, the emphasis shifts to achieving better patient outcomes and overall health while controlling expenses. This session will cover the fundamental concepts and requirements for moving from traditional fee-for-service payments to value-based payments.

MORNING BREAKOUT SESSION 2

Hot Topics: Suicide Prevention and Health Equity

ROOM Brazilian B
SPEAKERS Stella Sado, MD, MPH and Virna Little, PSyD, LCSW-r, SAP, CCM

The COVID-19 pandemic uncovered a host of health and social conditions that led to public health crises. This session brings together experts in two areas: suicide and health equity, to share information about the current state of patient risk--and care as well as strategies for implementing change in the primary care setting that will lead to better patient care and outcomes. How do we provide culturally appropriate care and implement interventions that will improve care, save lives and deepen the connection we have with our patients? Join us to learn more!

---

MORNING BREAKOUT SESSION 3

Building Partnerships to Ensure BH/SUD Services as an Integral Piece of Whole Person Care

ROOM Brazilian C
SPEAKERS Shane Hudson, MS, MSHC, LCP, LCAC and Dani Hallgren (CEO, Konza Prairie)

Building partnerships across care settings is necessary if we wish to bring strong agencies and services together to treat patients seamlessly and effectively. While everyone benefits from sharing our strengths, the road map for doing so is often murky at best and there are always challenges along the way. Join us in this breakout session to gain a better understanding of the process, lessons learned, and how to find success in collaborating with behavioral health providers to better serve your patients' whole health needs.

MORNING BREAKOUT SESSION 4

Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics (CCBHC)/FQHCs

ROOM Brazilian D
SPEAKERS Bob Kraft, MD (CEO, Salina Family Healthcare Center) and Keith Rickard MS, MBA, LCP

As Certified Community Behavioral Health Clinics and Community Health Centers work to increase behavioral health and primary care in their facilities, the risk is that mutual suspicions may grow making partnerships more difficult and resulting in worse outcomes for patients. It is important that people in both the CMHC and FQHC networks have a better understanding of the two models. This workshop will feature representatives from each network who will discuss the differences and similarities between both models and will break down myths and misconceptions that are barriers to greater collaboration.

In 2014, HRSA updated its description of Section 330 "enabling services" to include civil legal services. Since that time, over 160 health centers have adopted the medical-legal partnership (MLP) approach to be able to integrate the expertise of lawyers into their service delivery models for patients. In this session, the audience will hear from the National Center for Medical-Legal Partnership about the health-harming legal needs faced by patients served by health centers and how the MLP approach provides a solution for addressing and preventing these needs. Then, local health center MLP leaders will explain how their MLP programs are designed to improve health outcomes and experiences for both patients and providers.

AFTERNOON BREAKOUT SESSION 1
AI – Balancing Risk with Opportunity

ROOM Brazilian A
SPEAKER Lindsey Jarrett, PhD

The rapid emergence of machine-learning algorithms in healthcare, paired with a context of scarce regulation and oversight, has created several risks around the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI), especially for historically underserved communities. Healthcare leaders must know if AI is a risk to be mitigated or an opportunity to grow, and how to determine the distinction for the people they serve. This session addresses the risk of implementing AI in healthcare, the opportunities for improving health outcomes, and how healthcare organizations can create structures to find a path forward with excitement and caution.

AFTERNOON BREAKOUT SESSION 2
Dental Public Health and Health Equity

ROOM Brazilian B
SPEAKER Bob Russell, DDS, MPA, CPM

Health equity has suddenly become visible across the public and general health care sector. Dentistry however, has not kept up with the changing tides in favor of improving the health equity landscape. History provides some hints as to why this discrepancy has become what is called a "wicked problem." Defining wicked problems as those issues that are extremely hard to fix, and when solutions are applied, it presents new problems. The session will highlight some of those issues and present challenging proposals that can improve dentistry's contributions towards health equity.
